Boutique Hotel Yöpuu is a charming city hotel in the heart of Jyväskylä. In this building of considerable historic interest guests will find characteristics reminiscent of the 1920s but also of the present day. The atmosphere is provided by numerous small details, such as the personal style in which the rooms are decorated, each of which has a fascinating tale to tell.*

Hotels famous restaurant Pöllöwaari offers clear, aesthetically beautiful, fresh and high quality food. Raw materials and flavours follow seasons variation. Finnish meat, fish and vegetables are often from near region and are the heart of our à la carte and menu.

Turkkila is a traditional farm house in Muurame, in the heart of Central Finland. The service of Turkkila s is based on strong human philosophy when preparing and serving food. The major points are tasty, homemade food based on old recipes, good and fresh ingredients, and beautiful table settings.
